

Questions for researcher

1. What are the differences in the outcome measures? Do you expect the results to be the same for both measures? Would differences in the outcomes indicate a problem with the study?
2. Why are there more missing data for treatment group 5? Are you interested in this finding? Does it indicate that there are unpleasant side effects at higher doses?
3. Is there an improvement amount that is clinically meaningful?